Thanks All

I'll take a look a little later to make sure it shows up.

Hi All,

I just published the site. Let me know if for some reason it doesn't show on the site. It think it takes a couple of hours to populate.

Gentlemen,

I saw that Roux had published the data summary report page. Therefore I have finalized edits to our site summary page and sent it to Libby for publication. She's on sick leave this morning but will be teleworking soon. I told her this would be coming, so she should be on the alert. Once she hits the publish button, it should go live in about two hours.

I'll check on it a bit later.

Thanks
